City's First Candy Shop Opens Doors

Another new store was this week added to the growing list of businesses and services now available in Torrance. Candy-lovers will be particularly interested to know that the first candy store in this city has opened its doors.

Joy Lynn's Candies, located at 1339 El Prado, has on display a tempting array of fine chocolates and other confections, all made right in the candy kitchen on the premises. The candies are available in attractive gift boxes.

Don Memmer, owner of the shop, brings to the store a great deal of experience in the field of candy-making. He formerly owned a similar business in San Bernardino. He and his wife, who have been residents of Torrance for two years, reside at 2016 Reynosa Drive in Kettler Knolls. They have two children, Linda Joy, 6, and Martha Lynn, 10. Both youngsters are enrolled at Torrance Elementary School.

Memmer, a navy veteran, served 38 months in Europe during World War II.

Isenberg to Make Flight In New Ship

Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, has been invited by United Airlines to be their guest on a courtesy flight introducing United's newest equipment, the "Convair Mainliner." The flight will leave Long Beach airport on Friday, Nov. 14, according to Isenberg.

Representatives and executives of the various Southern California chambers of commerce will be entertained before the flight at a luncheon honoring the inception of this new service for harbor district customers. The luncheon will be jointly sponsored by the airlines and the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, Isenberg reported.

CANDY SHOP OPENS—The collective sweet-tooth of the city of Torrance will be delighted to know that there is now a confectionery shop here. Located at 1339 El Prado, Joy Lynn's carries a complete line of candies, including hand dipped chocolates, all made right on the premises.

If you want the contents of a saucepan to boil quickly, do not leave a spoon in it, as the spoon contracts divisions will cease all activities for the Salary Stabilization Board on October 1.
